Venue Guide

8/14 Henderson Valley Road
Te Kōpua Henderson
Tāmaki Makaurau Auckland

Discover Te Puna Creative Hub, where ancestral wisdom and creativity converge to generate something extraordinary.

Located in the epi-centre of Te Puna Creative Innovation Quarter, the Creative Hub offers dynamic, adaptable spaces with state-of-the-art tools and technologies to bring your creative vision to life, in Te Kōpua Henderson in the vibrant west of Tāmaki Makaurau Auckland.

Combining high-tech facilities – including the Kōmanawa Theatre and Takawai Film Studio – with premium spaces such as the Grand Foyer and The Grounds eatery, Te Puna Creative Hub is West Auckland's home for unforgettable creative experiences.

Te Kawerau ā Maki, the mana whenua of west Auckland, gifted the name Te Puna to the hub that is destined to become a centre of innovative excellence – aptly-named as puna are springs in the waterways of a tribe's lands where people converge to connect in daily life.

Whether you're planning a screen production, live performance, formal dinner, awards ceremony, conference, team-building activity, cocktail function or exhibition, our dedicated team takes a hands-on approach to delivering exceptional experiences in a vibrant, collaborative community where technology, artists and innovators connect.

Plus there is free onsite parking available, with additional parking at affordable rates nearby and Te Puna is within 5-minutes' walk of the Henderson Station.

Te Puna Creative Innovation Quarter

The Creative Hub is in the centre of Te Puna Creative Innovation Quarter, an area that aspires to be a world-class centre of excellence for creative industries in Tāmaki Makaurau Auckland – home of innovation in screen, gaming, creative tech, music, arts and performing arts.

For equipment specifications, and booking enquiries, contact Te Puna Creative Hub directly. Basic sound and lighting included in venue hire, for advanced technical support we can connect you with our preferred suppliers and operators.

Indigenous Innovation Partnership: Driven by a partnership between Auckland Council, its economic development office and Te Kawerau ā Maki, the mana whenua authority for West Auckland, this initiative reflects the iwi tribal value of auaha (creativity and innovation) and their long-standing support for Te Kōpua Henderson's creative industries. This collaborative innovation bridges traditional knowledge with cutting-edge technology.

Strategic Development Vision: Bordered by Keeling Road and Great North Road, and part of the Development Auckland's Unlock Henderson urban regeneration area, Te Puna Creative Innovation Quarter will create a circuit of creative industries linking Henderson village, Corban Estate Arts Centre, Laidlaw College and Auckland Film Studios.

Creative Legacy: Building on Henderson's 25-year history as the heart of Auckland's creative sector, the Quarter leverages existing high concentrations of creative facilities, businesses and talent, to fuel innovation through imagination – creating a vibrant community that will grow to host Aotearoa New Zealand's largest concentration of creative innovation industries.

“The venue was a perfect fit for our diverse audience - from creatives to professional funders and ministerial clients. The service we received was exceptional.”
